

Carlile Patchen & Murphy LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Jackie Lynn Hager

Primary Practice Areas:

Commercial, Real Estate Transaction, Real Property Tax Valuation and Tax Appeals

Professional Experience:

Successfully argued at the Supreme Court of Ohio and several Ohio District Court of Appeals

Publications/Speaking Engagements:

Article, Columbus CEO Magazine, "Lease Negotiation Can Benefit Both Parties" (September 2009)

Article, Columbus CEO Magazine, "The Challenge of Challenging your Real Property Taxes" (December 2010)

IREM Core Law, Real Estate Tax Valuation (August 2008)

First City Bank: Commercial Real Estate Presentaion

Columbus Bar Association Real Property Institute (February 2009)

Education:

The Capital University Law School, Juris Doctor (2000)

The University of San Diego School of Law, Certificate of Completion of the Institute on International and Comparative Law (1999)

Ohio Wesleyan University, B.A. (1997)

Bar Admissions:

State of Ohio (2000)

U.S. District Court, Southern District of Ohio (2001)

Professional Association and Memberships:

Columbus Bar Association

Ohio Bar Association

American Bar Association

Community Involvement:

Leadership Delaware Area Chamber of Commerce, Class of 2003

Volunteer Judge of The Ohio Center for Law-Related Middle School Mock Trial

Volunteer Judge for The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law - Moot Court

Volunteer Alumni with the A/PART Program at Ohio Wesleyan University