Carlile Patchen & Murphy Welcomes a New Associate

Columbus, OH – November 23, 2009 – Carlile Patchen & Murphy is pleased to announce the hiring of Megan Boiarsky as an associate to the firm.

“I am delighted to be joining a firm with such a great reputation for client responsiveness,” said Boiarsky, “and I am excited to share my employment knowledge and experience with the firm’s clients and my new colleagues.”

As an Assistant Attorney General in the Employment Law Section and Labor Unit of the Office of the Ohio Attorney General, Boiarsky represented state agencies, colleges and universities in state and federal courts and before the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the State Personnel Board of Review (SPBR), the State Employment Relations Board (SERB) and the Ohio Court of Claims. While there, Boiarsky was twice competitively selected as 1 of 20 members of the Special Litigation Group. The group worked on high-profile litigation for the Attorney General. In that capacity, she worked on sub-groups focused on lead paint litigation and anti-trust matters.

Boiarsky represented charging parties in mediations and negotiations before the SERB and represented a number of state employers in arbitration hearings before independent mediators. Her trial experience includes obtaining a defense verdict for the Ohio State University in a race and age discrimination trial before the Ohio Court of Claims. She has also handled more than 30 administrative hearings before the SPBR and the SERB. She regularly counsels and advises clients on employee discipline, discrimination, disability, age, leave and wage-and-hour matters.

She received her law degree from The Ohio State University and an undergraduate degree from Duke University. Boiarsky participated in the ProBono Program in the Attorney General’s office and was also an Ohio Mock Trial Program Volunteer.

The law firm of Carlile Patchen & Murphy has, for more than 40 years, concentrated on responsively serving all of the legal and business needs of mid-sized Central Ohio businesses and their owners and executives. Beyond the traditional legal advice, the firm provides clients the benefit of its extensive experience in counseling on financing, tax and estate planning, employment, operations, and business succession.
