Carlile Patchen & Murphy Attorney Appointed to Franklin County Law Library Resources Board

Columbus, OH – July 16, 2009 – H. Ritchey Hollenbaugh, a partner at the law firm Carlile Patchen & Murphy LLP, has been appointed to the Franklin County Law Library Resources Board by the Franklin County Board of Commissioners.

“I am pleased to be able to serve the community through this exciting leadership position, and I look forward to sharing my knowledge with a very talented pool of fellow board members,” said Hollenbaugh.

The Franklin County Law Library Resources Board, which consists of five members, provides legal research, reference, and library services to the county and to the municipal corporations, townships, and courts within the county and also manages the coordination, acquisition, and utilization of legal resources.

Hollenbaugh is the head of the Litigation Group at Carlile Patchen & Murphy. He received his undergraduate degree from Kent State University in 1969 and his law degree from Capital University in 1973. He is a past President of the Ohio State Bar Association and past President of the Columbus Bar Association. His areas of practice include business litigation, white collar criminal litigation and employment law.

The law firm of Carlile Patchen & Murphy has for over 40 years concentrated on responsibly serving the legal and business needs of mid-sized Central Ohio businesses and their owners and executives. Beyond the traditional advice on choice of the appropriate business entity and structure of ownership interests, the firm lends its extensive experience in counseling on financing, tax planning and operations; and ultimately to sale or transfer of the business to a strategic buyer, the employees or succeeding generations. Employment matters, and litigation if all else fails, are also areas where the firm’s attorneys frequently offer skilled advice and timely assistance.
