Carlile Patchen & Murphy Attorneys Named Super Lawyers

Columbus, OH – January 20, 2009 – Several Carlile Patchen & Murphy attorneys have been named Ohio Super Lawyers in their field for 2009. Super Lawyers is a listing of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

Super Lawyers is published as a special supplement in leading newspapers and city and regional magazines across the country. Super Lawyers magazine, featuring articles about attorneys named to the Super Lawyers list, is distributed to all attorneys in the state or region, the lead corporate counsel of Russell 3000 companies and the American Bar Association-approved law school libraries.

The CPM lawyers named include:

H. Ritchey Hollenbaugh for Business Litigation

Hollenbaugh concentrates on complex business litigation, white collar crime and election issues

Robert B. Barnett, Jr. for Estate Planning & Probate

Barnett represents individuals, executives and owners of family businesses with respect to their estate and business planning needs, including ownership succession planning, Employee Stock Ownership Plans (ESOPs) and probate. He has been named a “Super Lawyer” since the inception of the award.

Marie-Joëlle C. Khouzam for Employment & Labor

Khouzam concentrates on representing employers/management in Labor and Employment Law matters, Workers’ Compensation, and Municipal Law. She also provides representation and defense of property owners and property managers in fair-housing discrimination cases. Khouzam was also named to Super Lawyers’ Corporate Counsel List in December 2008.

Dennis J. Concilla for Securities Litigation

Concilla concentrates in the area of securities industry arbitration and regulation.

Super Lawyers also recognizes the top up-and-coming attorneys in the state, whom they call Rising Stars. Attorneys in this category must be 40 years old or younger or have practiced for 10 years or less. CPM attorneys named Rising Stars by Super Lawyers include Carl Aveni, Matthew S. Brown, Elizabeth P. Kuhn and Jane Higgins Marx.

The law firm of Carlile Patchen & Murphy has for over 40 years concentrated on responsively serving the legal and business needs of mid-sized Central Ohio businesses and their owners and executives. Beyond the traditional advice on choice of the appropriate business entity and structure of ownership interests, the firm lends its extensive experience in counseling on financing, tax planning and operations; and ultimately to sale or transfer of the business to a strategic buyer, the employees or succeeding generations. Employment matters, and litigation if all else fails, are also areas where the firm's attorneys frequently offer skilled advice and timely assistance.
