

Anne Yeager

Communications and Marketing Lead

Anne Yeager leads Communications and Marketing at Carlile Patchen & Murphy LLP, bringing more than 20 years of experience in broadcast journalism, state government communications, and economic development to the firm's brand and client-facing storytelling. A five-time Emmy Award winner, Anne spent over 15 years as a television news anchor and reporter before transitioning into strategic communications leadership.

Anne came to CPM after serving as Chief of Communications for a public agency overseeing K-12 school construction and higher education renovation projects across Ohio. Earlier in her career, she led communications for economic development initiatives statewide and served as Public Information Manager at the Supreme Court of Ohio, managing public affairs and media relations for the state's highest court. Anne holds a journalism degree from Ohio University's E.W. Scripps School of Journalism.
